Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my interest in providing web development services to your company. I am a self-taught web developer and programmer with a passion for learning and creating. I have completed several projects using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React Native, and Python. I have also earned a web development certificate from freeCodeCamp.

I have experience in creating responsive websites and mobile apps that are user-friendly, functional, and attractive. I can work with different frameworks and technologies to meet your specific needs and preferences. I can also integrate various features and functionalities such as payment systems, databases, APIs, authentication, etc.

I am interested in economics, physics, history, business and finance, and I am currently studying accounting, finance, managerial accounting, management finance, economics and business online. I have some business experience in selling and delivering food, managing restaurants, pig farming, chicken farming, and fruit trading. I am good at bookkeeping, mathematics, and problem-solving. I am adaptable, hard-working, and have a good business instinct.

I would love to work with you on your web development projects and help you achieve your goals. I can deliver high-quality work within the agreed time frame and budget. I can also communicate effectively with you throughout the process and provide regular updates and feedback.

You can view some of my projects on my GitHub profile [my username is tefol-hub]. You can also check out my LinkedIn profile here [my username is Tefo Leche] for more information about me.

If you are interested in hiring me for your web development projects, please contact me at tefoleche03@gmail.com. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Tefo Leche
